All guarantees, including any optional benefits, are subject to the claims-paying ability and financial strength of the issuing insurance company. Each issuing insurance company is solely responsible for its own financial condition and contractual obligations.

Guarantees apply to certain insurance and annuity products (not securities, variable, or investment advisory products), including optional benefits, and are subject to product terms, exclusions, and limitations.

Buying an annuity to fund a qualified retirement plan or IRA should be done for the annuity's features and benefits other than tax deferral. Tax deferral is generally a feature of a qualified retirement plan or IRA, so an annuity would not provide an additional tax deferral benefit. References throughout this material to tax advantages, such as tax deferral and tax-free transfers, are subject to this consideration. The product described in this material is not made available to employer-sponsored qualified retirement plans. For non-qualified annuities, tax deferral is not available to corporations and certain other entities.

- ¹ If you make no purchase payments for 3 years and your account value is less than $2,000, we may terminate the contract. For subsequent investments for IRAs, we will accept a different amount if required by federal tax law.
- ² The minimum subsequent Purchase Payment is $500 unless the contract owner elects an electronic funds transfer program approved by Brighthouse Financial, in which case the minimum subsequent Purchase Payment is $100 per month.
- ³ May not make additional payments once waiver is used. Other restrictions apply. See prospectus for details.
- ⁴ For qualified retirement plans and IRAs, income payments and withdrawals must generally comply with the required minimum distribution rules, which may limit the benefit of certain living and/or death benefits.
- ⁵ The FlexChoice Access living benefit rider is referred to as the Guaranteed Lifetime Withdrawal Benefit (GLWB) in the prospectus. If you elected the FlexChoice Access living benefit rider with your variable annuity contract, you can take annual non-excess withdrawals after age 59½ and still maintain the Benefit Base at least equal to the initial purchase payment. If your account value is reduced to zero due to a non-excess withdrawal, you will receive lifetime income payments under the FlexChoice Access benefit. Depending on whether single lifetime or joint lifetime payments are selected, the annual amount of lifetime payments under the FlexChoice Access benefit may be lower than the annual withdrawal amounts received before the account value was reduced to zero.

FlexChoice Access may be canceled on the 5th, 10th, or a later contract anniversary and a Guaranteed Principal Adjustment to the account value may be available. Once canceled, it cannot be re-elected. See the prospectus for details. For FlexChoice Access, we may restrict subsequent purchase payments at any time if changes are made to the benefit terms or if the rider is no longer available to new customers. See prospectus for details.

- ⁶ Excess withdrawals are withdrawals that exceed the Annual Benefit Payment in a contract year and can significantly impact your guarantees. See the prospectus for details.
- ⁷ Deducted from the account value and assessed on the contract anniversary. A pro rata portion of the FlexChoice Access living benefit charge will be assessed upon: a complete withdrawal from your contract that is either an excess withdrawal or a withdrawal before age 59½, annuitization of the contract, change of owner or joint owner (or the annuitant, if a non-natural person owns the contract), termination of the contract other than by death, or assignment of the contract if on a date other than your contract anniversary.

If your Benefit Base is increased due to an Automatic Step-Up, we may reset the rider charge applicable beginning after the contract anniversary on which the Automatic Step-Up occurs to a rate that does not exceed the lower of: (a) the Maximum Automatic Step-Up Charge (2.00% for FlexChoice Access) or (b) the current rate that we would charge for the same rider with the same benefits, if available for new contract purchases at the time of the Automatic Step-Up.

- ⁸ If you elected the Guaranteed Access Benefit with your variable annuity contract, you can take annual withdrawals up to your withdrawal rate. The withdrawal rate is based on your Total Guaranteed Withdrawal Amount. The Total Guaranteed Withdrawal Amount is equal to all purchase payments in the first 120 days from contract issue. The Guaranteed Access Benefit does not establish a guaranteed lifetime income amount. May only be canceled within 30 days following your 5th, 10th, 15th, or later contract anniversary. For Guaranteed Access Benefit only, no subsequent purchase payments are allowed after 120 days from contract issue, but this restriction is not applicable once the Guaranteed Access Benefit has terminated.
- ⁹ In order to access the Payment Enhancement Feature, the following conditions must be met: 3-year waiting period from the Guaranteed Access Benefit effective date; elimination period of confinement in a qualified facility of 90 days; maximum age to qualify for the feature will be the contract anniversary immediately prior to the oldest Owner's 81st birthday; the feature will only be added to contracts if the oldest owner is age 75 or younger; no excess withdrawals are allowed in the contract year of the request for the feature; contract owner's request will be verified by Annuity Operations; account value must be greater than zero upon approval of the request; multiple withdrawals will be allowed during the contract year under the feature, but will not be allowed as part of a Systematic Withdrawal Program.

- ¹⁰ Deducted from account value and assessed on the contract anniversary. A pro rata portion of the Guaranteed Access Benefit charge will be assessed upon a complete withdrawal from your contract, annuitization of the contract, change of owner or joint owner (or the annuitant, if a nonnatural person owns the contract), termination of the contract other than death, or assignment of the contract if on a date other than your contract anniversary.

If your Total Guaranteed Withdrawal Amount is increased due to an Automatic Step-Up, we may reset the rider charge applicable beginning after the contract anniversary on which the Automatic Step-Up occurs to a rate that does not exceed the lower of: (a) the Maximum Automatic Step-Up Charge of 1.80% or (b) the current rate that we would charge for the same rider available for new contract purchases at the time of the Automatic Step-Up.

- ¹¹ The variable annuity contract and the underlying investment portfolios are not designed for "market timing" strategies. We may limit transfers in circumstances of market timing or other transfers that we determine are or would be to the disadvantage of other contract holders. Rebalancing does not ensure a profit and does not protect against loss in declining markets. It involves reallocation of investment percentages regardless of fluctuation in price levels. You should consider your financial ability to continue purchasing through periods of low price levels.
- ¹² Dollar cost averaging does not ensure a profit and does not protect against loss in declining markets. Since dollar cost averaging involves continuous investment in securities regardless of fluctuating price levels of such securities, the investor should carefully consider their financial ability to continue purchases through periods of fluctuating price levels.
- ¹³ Assessed on the contract anniversary. A full Account Fee will be deducted upon complete withdrawal from your contract. A pro rata portion of the Account Fee will be deducted from the account value on the annuity date if this date is other than a contract anniversary.

Investment performance is not guaranteed.
